Gemma & Antoinette Curry

Over order of PPE

Gemma Got over excited and ordered way too much PPE which caused the Jobcentre on the first floor of the office building, to get angry! The security contacted Gemma and complained but luckily XXX & XXX rescued Gemma and went to the office, using their muscles to move all PPE into the office.

Quality Care Time

Care, Training & Development

A big THANK YOU to both XXXX & XXX for this – it is very much appreciated 😊

Tax Relief

Care and support work is a skilled job role which comes with responsibilities. It is important that staff are aware of what expenses they can claim back.

1. Working from home -
2. Uniforms, work clothing and tools
3. Vehicles you use for work
4. Professional fees and subscriptions
5. Travel and overnight expenses
6. Buying other equipment

Claim tax relief for your job expenses - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk)

Certificates & Training

There are certificates from the acredited training some of you have attended, which have finally been delivered:

- o First aid
- o PMVA
- o Medication
- o Level 3

Well done to all who attended and achieved.

Additional acredited training is currently being organised (some mandatory) – many of you have already completed the enrolments, if not – please see link below to complete:

https://eu1.documents.adobe.com/public/esignWidget?wid=CBFCIBAA3AAABLblqZhAR_qlPoF3uoMcu9dbg3bHxBSlsNqmYZBbVmVTEyoaF_BZEYrUvQpIp9917o5MO7js*

Staff Benefits

All care workers should apply for a blue light card as the cost of living is too much and these little things can help you!
https://www.bluelightcard.co.uk/

Policies & documents on Log my care
The latest updates

In February, policies, contracts, documents have all been updated and made available on the log my care app.

Shifts @ Dale Avenue
The latest updates

Unfortunately, shifts at Dale avenue will come to an end for a couple of our staff on the 27th February, however, the team spirit is still alive and there is always hope for the future!